KWAOR Foundation Recognizes Outstanding Students with Inaugural Scholarship Awards

[East Greenwich, RI] - The KWAOR Foundation, the charitable arm of the Kent Washington Association of REALTORS® proudly announces that Tianna-Lee Keovongvichit from West Warwick High School and Parker Harrison from Narragansett High School have been honored as the recipients of the organization's very first Scholarship Award. In recognition of their exceptional achievements, each student has been awarded a $1,000 scholarship.

The KWAOR Foundation is committed to supporting and empowering young individuals in their pursuit of higher education. The scholarship program aims to recognize students who have demonstrated academic excellence, leadership potential, and a commitment to their community.

Tianna-Lee Keovongvichit, a distinguished student from West Warwick High School, has consistently exhibited outstanding dedication to her studies. Her academic accomplishments, combined with her passion for community service, make her a deserving recipient of this prestigious scholarship.

Parker Harrison, a remarkable student from Narragansett High School, has demonstrated exemplary leadership skills and an unwavering commitment to excellence. His impressive academic record and active involvement in extracurricular activities set him apart as an outstanding candidate for this recognition.

The scholarship awards were presented by Reena Gleason, Secretary/Treasurer of the KWAOR Foundation, and Shannon Krasnowiecki, Chair of the Association's Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) Committee. The recipients were chosen after a rigorous selection process, which highlighted their exceptional qualities and dedication to their educational pursuits.

"We are thrilled to honor Tianna-Lee Keovongvichit and Parker Harrison with our inaugural Scholarship Award," stated Reena Gleason. "Their remarkable achievements and commitment to personal growth and community service embody the values we hold dear at the KWAOR Foundation. We believe they have a bright future ahead and are proud to support them in their educational endeavors."

The KWAOR Foundation would like to express its sincere gratitude to all the applicants who participated in the scholarship program. The high caliber of the applicants made the selection process challenging and showcased the exceptional talent and potential within the community.

Tianna-Lee Keovongvichit and Parker Harrison join an esteemed group of individuals who have been recognized by the KWAOR Foundation for their academic achievements and community involvement. The Foundation remains committed to empowering future generations and investing in the educational success of students in Kent and Washington Counties.
